

Call of the Wild

Call of the wild deep in my bones
Call of the wild won't leave me alone
I long for a place nobody owns.

Pure as pater, lonely as the mountain top
I long for a place, a space beyond words

Call of the wild quickens my blood
To run with the wolves, play like a cub
Wide open space and a sky full of stars
When I look up
